“ I never had the privilege of meeting Sherry, but it is evident that she has left a legacy of great memories with everyone she encountered. May the peace which comes from the memories of love shared with Sherry; comfort you now and in the days ahead. Gone from our sight, but never from our hearts....

“ Sherry was such a wonderful, caring, kind and generous woman. I feel blessed to have worked with her for the past 7 1/2 years. She always was positive and brought inspiration to all she dealt with. Sherry's faith in her God was truly a gift and it is comforting to know that she is now with Him.

“ Sherry was a great employee, but a better mother. She was always thinking of and talking about her children, most especially Jennifer. We all have fond memories of her kindness and charity at Automated Retirement Plans and pray for the peace and comfort of her soul. Irish blessings, Diane Kelley
