“ Aunt Shirley was full of spirit, love and laughter. She was all heart and extremely dedicated to her family. She was closest in age to my father Larry and now joins him. They shared the same baby blue eyes and a very special bond. Those eyes came with a magnetic personality and the gift of having the ability to light up a room and make you feel as if there was a shared inside joke or secret they were letting you in on. (which there usually was) I feel blessed to have known her, even for a short time. She was a beautiful woman and extremely loved.
