“ My condolences to a very special family. Very hard to believe Sid is not here anymore. I always considered him my brother and I always will. His kindness and easy going ways will never be forgotten. In the forty-five years of knowing him there was never one negative word that I could ever say about him. Lots of special memories of the many great times we had together. I consider myself the luckiest guy on earth to have married into this family. A wife like no other in the world and three brothers added to my family. Sid was a great guy and a very special brother-in-law. This is so very true of the whole family. I know because I was married to the most special girl God ever created (Pat). Grandma Lee, Mr. Lee, Mrs. Lee, Sid, Pat, Roy, and Donny all became my new family on January 4th 1969. One thing is for sure; Sid had a big welcoming party where he is now. He is in the best of hands.

“ A true friend, always supportive for more than 50 years. Always kind and available. We grew up together, went to school together, worked together. I always considered Sid (and the rest of his family) as part of my family. I am deeply saddened by his loss. My very best to all his family members. An irreplaceable friend is no longer with us.

“ Sid was a very special person. We've known eachother for over 50 years, and he always remained kind, generous and thoughtful. Sid, you will be sorely missed by everyone Who knew you. You died too young, but you can now rest in peace with those who passed before you. You'll always remain in my heart. RIP

“ Sid was a good friend and neighbor for 33 years; always making life enjoyable and interesting. He was always there with a helping hand with all of our projects, there were many. Sid always found time to help his neighbors and friends and never expected anything in return. We enjoyed bowling, boating, and eating Maryland crabs with Sid. It was always comforting knowing Sid was always there. We will truly miss him.

“ We were neighbors for nearly 30 years. In the early years we used to play basketball in his driveway and he made the best sun tea. He was always very helpful to everyone and a very good friend. We will miss him terribly.
