

Sonia Raquel Selmonosky

March 19, 1936 - November 20, 2018

Sonia Raquel Selmonosky, born March 19th, 1936 to Bernardo and Ana Korob in Rosario, Argentina, passed away on Tuesday, November 20th in Falls Church, Virginia surrounded by her loved ones at the age of 82.

Sonia immigrated to the U.S. in 1958 and embraced her new life with gusto and passion. She always rose her hand for leadership roles and supported Jewish community through ORT, Hadassah, and her synagogue in Atlanta, Agudas Achim. Sonia was a powerful advocate for women and minorities in her communities and through the League of Women Voters.

She was a patron of the arts and her classical piano training included tango from her homeland. In addition to collecting contemporary art, Sonia was a leader in opening the doors for the Latin American art collection at the High Museum of Art in Atlanta.

She also never ceased to amaze her neighbors with her gardening prowess at both Bennett Woods and Beaver Lake Estates.

More importantly, Sonia was a devoted mother, grandmother, and wife. She was preceded in death by her brother, Roberto Korob, and son, Daniel Selmonosky. Sonia is survived by her husband of over 60 years, Dr. Carlos Alberto Selmonosky and by her daughters Deborah Selmonosky (BG Jones),

Arlene Miller, and Monica Selmonosky. She leaves six grandchildren: Olivia, Jacob, Gabriela, Isabella, Max, and Sophia.

Tribute Wall

“ Sonia Raquel Selmonosky

October 27, 2022 at 09:45 PM

“ Dear Carlos, Deborah, Arlene and Monica, We want you to know that we are thinking of you at this very difficult time. May your many memories be uplifting and comforting to you. One special memory I have is when we were taking Hebrew together at Ga. State University. Selma was a delight. May her sweet Neshama be elevated from all her kindnesses and good deeds. Love, Sheila and Allan Bleich

December 04, 2018 at 12:00 AM

“ *Carlos,
Kathy and I were saddened to learn of Sonia's passing. Please accept our heartfelt condolences. Hope, despite the circumstances, you are doing well.*

Kathy and Stuart Berkowitz

November 29, 2018 at 12:00 AM

“ Sonia Raquel Selmonosky

Written in the Stars - November 23, 2018 at 12:00 AM