“ We will miss Steven so very much. A good neighbor from our first meeting, he once helped Tia wrestle an angry, just-caged cat into her car and accompanied her to the Alexandria animal shelter. The trip was not much fun; the yowling nearly shattered her nerves. But Steve stayed stoic and was ready to assure safety if the poor spitfire escaped en route. Just one good deed among many. We extend our sadness, love and good wishes for Stella, her daughters, and all their family. Tia, Eric, Maddie and Megan
