“ I recently found out about the passing of my coworker. Although our relationship started off with a few misunderstandings we become really close. I will always remember the day you pulled into the parking lot of Sandburg blasting Prince & me thinking oh no please don't let him be my new attendant but i'm glad you were. You will always remain in my heart, my prayers & condolences go out to your wife & children. Thank you for opening my mind & heart to new faces. May you rest in peace now Van. Until we meet again my friend.

“ My Father was my hero & the most amazing man God put on this earth. I will live honoring your memory and greatness everyday Dad, and will teach my children all of the precious things you taught me & I know you would want them to know. I will never let them forget the love "granddad" had for them and they will live knowing they have the most amazing guardian angel looking over them. You beat cancer on february 27th 2016 and now fly high in heaven as my hero forever. I love you Dad, until we meet again

“ *My Dearest Van,
You were a loving husband, father and grandfather. We have so many great memories of you. There is an empty space in our lives now that you are gone. I will always love you and carry that love with me as I go on without you. You leave behind a beautiful legacy in our daughters Nichole and Carleigh. Your smile every time you saw our granddaughters Ellie and Evelyn will continue to warm my heart. I will miss you beyond any words can say. I love you still and always will. We will always keep your memory alive. I know you are now our angle who will look over us and take care of us. Until we meet again my love I will love you for eternity Your loving wife,
Faye.*
