“ I have just heard the very sad and shocking news of Susie's death. It is one of those things impossible to understand, and words are useless at such a time. I had to let you know, however, that my heart aches for all of the family as YOU were her pride and joy. I have many wonderful memories of Susie as a co-worker and as a friend. I hope the memories you have of her will give you strength and help you during this sad time.

“ I recently found out about Mrs. Shupe's passing and I cannot begin to describe how sad I became. As a childhood friend of Mrs. Shupe's daughter, Heather, I will always remember Mrs. Shupe as being the sweetest and nicest lady. I pray that the family is comforted in knowing that she is now in a better place. Peace, prayers and blessings.

“ I have know Susie since she came to work at the R&D Center in 1966; she was an extremely shy young lady at the time. She was the hardest working, most dedicated person I have ever met. Over the years, she became known as the person to go to if you had a problem and she normally had the solution or would find one. Even when disagreeing, you had to admire and respect her work ethics and integrity. My condolences to Michael, Heather and their families, you were her pride and joy; she just glowed when talking about her grandbabies. Her family and her church seemed to be what she cherished most.

“ I am sorry to hear of Susie passing. I worked with her at the Hoffman Building. I was always trying to look busy so that she wouldn't yell at me and cause me to get counseled for not working. My condolences.

“ Susie's passing comes hard to all who knew her at the CECOM Washington Contracting office, or as I knew her, at the Belvoir RD&E Center. She personified dedication and integrity in her job. She was also a pleasure to be around, and will be sorely missed.
