“ Oh I just knew it. I could feel it & something just made me look Mrs G. up online. I'm still able to sing at the age of 56 and perform as a professional dinger, thanks to 3 yrs of singing lessons in the early 70s. I love you dearly MRS. GOTTLIEB.

“ Oh dear, now learning of this... You helped me find my voice, and I am thankful for that. When I first started Sylma was like "You need a lot of work, Annisha," but Sylma was determine to see me do well. I will miss her dearly. Glad I was there for your 90th birthday celebration. Missed you in 2013. RIP, grandma Sylma.

“ *U were such an inspiration. My mum found u by doing ur draperies/interior decorating. U accepted me as a student when I 1st moved to Bowie. U accepted me as a piano student but wanted me to do voice. My mum disagreed. I still sing though. Because of you, thank you
Mrs. Gottlieb, RIP, luv u*

“ Please accept my heartfelt sympathies in the loss of your dear loved one. How comforting in knowing Almighty God has not only the power but also the desire to resurrect our loved ones. Jesus himself said: "Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." John 5:28,29
