“ Kelly and family, I write with my condolences to you and your family. I found solace in the following poem when suffering a loss. I am sharing it with you: I find an old photograph and see your smile. As I feel your presence anew, I am filled with warmth and my heart remembers love. I read an old card sent many years ago during a time of turmoil and confusion. The soothing words written then still caress my spirit and bring me peace. I remember who you used to be the laughter we shared and wonder what you have become. Where are you now, Where did you go, When the body is left behind and the spirit is released to fly? Perhaps you are the morning bird singing joyfully at sunrise, or the butterfly that dances so carelessly on the breeze or the rainbow of colors that brightens a stormy sky or the fingers of afternoon mist delicately reaching over the mountains or the final few rays of the setting sun lighting up the skies edging the clouds with a magical glow. I miss your being but I feel your presence, In whatever form you choose to take, however you now choose to be. Your spirit has become for me a guardian angel on high guiding, advising, and watching over me. I remember you. You are with me and I am not afraid. Kirsti A. Dyer, MD, MS

“ Kelly -- I am so sorry for the loss of Mam-Maw. You have lots of memories that will help fill the void you're feeling. Just always remember those good times, laughter, and fun things you did with your Mam-Maw. In doing this, she'll be with you always. I love you Mam-Maw and I love you Kelly.

“ Ron, Sherri and Don Don and I are so sorry for your loss. Sylvia will be sorely missed, but I believe she is where she will be happy--with Chad and her best friend Margaret--not to mention Charles, Betty and her parents. Your Mom and Dad were truly the best friend and neighbor anyone could ask for. Sylvia was the neighborhood Mom for years. Everytime I look at a pool, pond, lake, or ocean, precious memories will flood my sole. We were so lucky to have them as neighbors and friends for over 30 years. God Bless you all.

“ Ron Monday, My dear friend. What can I say except that you were truly a dedicated man who was there for your Mom in her hour of need. Carol and I send our deepest sympathies to you and your family. When I think of your Mom I SMILE out loud!! She was "on to us Ronnie!" No matter what we did she loved un-conditionally. We played hard and your Mom knew when she saw us together that there went 2 guys who were gonna' make an evening of it! Yet she just smiled and gave us that "all-knowing" look that said "Be careful" you little devils, and we knew that she was riding with us everywhere we went. Looking over our shoulders as our "Guardian Angel." Now she is with Chad and they both are watching over you. We love you my friend--Ron and Carol.

“ Thank you all for your wonderful words. Yes, my mom was so good to all of us. She always put the needs of her kids and family before herself. She worked in the government for many years and then after retirement watched my kids part time. Even in her later years she wanted to still know if she could keep my kids. Mom was always laughing, she could find humor in anything. She would always speak what everyone else was thinking, at least to me before the Alzheimer's and later to anyone. She kept us laughing that is for sure. She always went to church and had a strong belief in God, that is the primary reason for my faith today. She was the best mom and I am so glad that God allowed her to live 83 years so my kids could enjoy her as they grew older too. We use to talk on the phone almost everyday before the Alzheimer's, now I feel I can talk to her everyday again. I will miss her dearly until we meet again in Heaven. I love you mom! Sherri

“ Mam-Maw Monday was a very nice and funny lady. I have many fond memories of her, Kelly and Ronnie together and making everyone else laugh. She loved to sing and play the piano. “ No words could ever begin to describe the wonderful grandmother and friend I call Mam-mal. She was the heart and soul of our family, she always delivered smiles and laughter; I couldn't have asked for a better role model in my 36 years of life. We shared so many memories that I couldn't even begin to mention them all. I was her favorite granddaughter, she'd always tell me, and I'd remind her that I was her only and we'd both laugh. Even in the past years with her struggle with Alzheimer's her face would light up when I walked into the room as if I was the only one there. I am so grateful for the time I've had with her, God truly blessed anyone who had the privilege to meet her. She was the best and leaves a void in my heart that will never be filled. The last thing she said directly to me last week was "Oh honey I love you" - I love you too Mam-mal and will miss you more than anyone will ever know. Kelly
