“ I have known Teresa since May 1987 when we first worked together at NAVFAC. Over the years we became close friends. I treasure knowing her and sharing my life events with her (birth of daughters and grandsons). Gary and Kevin, you have two very special angels watching over you now. I know Teresa will always be in your hearts as she will mine. Kind, caring, strong, compassionate...she will always be remembered. I am so thankful that your Sister touched my life.

“ When I heard about Teresa's passing, I was utterly speechless. It was one of those times that you think something is not possible and you refuse to believe it. Teresa was a hard worker, an avid pet caretaker, and one of the most generous souls I've ever met. I can still hear her talking and laughing if I just close my eyes. The physical world will be a very sad place without her, but heaven has truly gained an angel. Rest in peace Teresa...

“ Words can never truly describe Teresa. She was an intelligent woman who had a beautiful, sweet spirit about her. Teresa had the ability to make you laugh when things seemed there darkest. She had a way of pushing you until you realized your fullest potential. When facing upcoming budget deadlines and increased stress, I could call her name and she would know to play the Baha Men's "Who Let the Dogs Out" as a way of relieving the tension. This drove people crazy at first but it caught on. Though she may not have thought of herself as one, Teresa was a mother and aunt to so many. To me, she was a dear friend. To those who never had an opportunity to know Teresa, you missed a blessing. To the Almighty God - Thank you for allowing Teresa to be in my life for so many years. I will truly miss my friend and co-worker.

“ Teresa was indeed a kind soul. At work, I and many others knew her as the "wizard" of supply chain finance. She was always willing to listen, despite looming deadlines. She enjoyed working with people. She thrived on professional challenges: the more complex, the better. There will never be another Teresa. She will be severely missed.

“ I went to HQ to help out with the budget about 3 years ago in December to assist with the budget. No matter how busy Teresa was she would stop what she was doing and take the time to answer my questions. She also gave gifts to her coworkers for Christmas. She gave me a tree ornament. that I place on my tree every year and remember how kind she was to me. She was a very special person.

“ The passing of Teresa is a great loss to her family, friends and those she worked with at the Department of the Navy and the Defense Logistics Agency. Teresa was one of God's gifts and she made this world a better place. She gave everything her very best while allowing others to reach their full potential. Everytime I see a Harry Potter movie, read a Vince Flynn and Janet Evanovich book I will remember Teresa. Good-bye dear friend until we meet. again.

“ I met Teresa through my daughter Michele. She was full of life, kind, and like another mother to my daughter. Teresa was a fragrant lily, a beautiful rose that God decided to pluck and place in heaven's garden.

“ I have worked with Teresa since she started with DLA. She was a great analyst, and most importantly a great person. She was one of the anonymous people who was critical in supporting the Military. She was intelligent. She grasped complicated subjects and immediately realized the financial and war fighter implications. Most importantly, she was a really, really nice person. She was calm in a storm of deadlines, spreadsheets and briefings. She was well-read and kind. We will all miss her very, very much.

“ Teresa will live on in my memories...especially her laugh and her example as a generous soul. What a beautiful person I'm so lucky to have known. The Judd-Sawyer family misses her, but smiles instantly with any thought of Teresa.

“ Teresa was one of the most generous people I have met. She always helped her co-workers and strangers and never asked for anything in return. Her kindness and generosity will be sorely missed especially during the holidays by the families she supported each year. She was their Secret Santa. I will miss her laughter and destressing moments when she listened to the "I Feel Good" song.
