“ Tybe, as I knew her was a joy to be around. A positive person who loved her family and life itself - she grabbed it by the tail. I know she will be missed by many people. Condolences to Judy and Mike and all of the family.

“ I will always remember her smile and laugh at many holiday events, such as my barmitzvah (and Jeff's and Steve's barmitzvahs) and the weddings of Jeff's and Steve's to simply being there with the family whenever I was at Washington, D.C. (for a conference). She was always reassuring, loving, and motherly to the lot of us (as I almost saw here when I was in a big lot of kids-- no matter the age we were). I will miss her much.

“ A very great lady, one to whom any woman could aspire. I always told her I wanted to be her when I grew up. Well, I am 77 and I still feel that way. She was loving and caring to everybody and for that reason she will be missed by very many of her friends. I was proud to be considered not only family but a friend. I will miss you, Tybie. Love, Barbara Hawthorne (Mike's sister and Mimi's roommate)
