“ To Albert and the Children, I just heard and my heart is absolutely broken. Spoke with her earlier this year, but she never complained. She was my Head Nurse at WRAMC and what a leader. She always had a smile, a joke and was just happy go lucky all the time. The thoughts of her family was never from her mouth. She is sorely missed.

“ Heard about this (while overseas in the Gulf) from my daughter who dances at MFAC with Sylvia. I just want to say, I am thinking of you all these last few days and I am sorry for the loss. Unbelievable. Will be praying for you all. -LT Tim Nank

“ My thoughts and prayers extend to Tracey's family. As a fellow member of the Liberty Battalion ROTC class, I mourn her passing. Tracey was a bright light on too many early mornings, always ready with a smile, a joke or insult, but unflagging in her devotion to friends and comrades. Across the years and miles, she is deeply missed.

“ My prayers and thoughts are with Tracey's family during this sad and difficult time. Tracey was a strong woman of Faith. I posted a scripture reading just a few months ago on a mutual friends FB timeline which she liked...

*To every thing
There is a season,
And a time to every purpose
Under the heaven;
A time to be born,
And a time to die;
A time to weep, and a time to laugh;
A time to mourn, and a time to dance.
Ecclesiastes 3:1-2,4*
