“ I have been looking for my friend for about 2 years and never thought the investigation would lead to this. I am completely stunned right now. Troy was an amazing person full of life, laughter and spirit. He was my Best Man. Everybody that met him, felt his spirit. He was a beacon of life that people just flocked to. He talked with complete strangers as if he knew them for years. His personality, his compassion for other people his ora was that of an angel walking amongst regular humans. Troy you were my Friend, and you will be definitely be missed. I Love you my Brother.... Rest Peaceful in Heaven

“ Dear Family, please accept my sincere condolences for the death of Troy. The death of a loved one is difficult, especially when it is tragic, so unexpected. Please take comfort in the knowledge that our heavenly father understands the sting of death as he also experienced the death of his only-begotten son—his first-born, Jesus Christ. Jesus expressed his pain over the loss of his friend Lazarus—though he knew he would bring him back to life. So Jesus will unlock the gates of the grave, just as he ordered that the stone of Lazarus’ tomb be rolled away. (John 11:39-44). Now try to imagine the happy reunion when friends and relatives, once separated by death, embrace your dear brother and son, again! Jesus’ kingdom government will bring to mankind this and so much more, yes “more than all we ask or imagine.” (Eph. 3:20).

“ Troy, I'm trying to be strong but I can't stop the tears from flowing. You were my big brother. I can still hear your laughter and I know you don't want us to be sad but our hearts are hurting so bad. You were taken too soon. I don't understand it but I know you're not in pain anymore. Rest in peace brother. I will love you always.

“ Family first. That’s what you’ve always been Troy. Your finest quality of a selfless heart, always willing to help the people you love so much is how I will always remember you. Taking me to AAU games, all the haircuts, spending those weekends over your house when I was younger, talking to me about handling myself appropriately in life in general; I appreciate you so much. Rest in peace Troy
