

Vera C. Roseman

July 25, 1921 - February 3, 2016

Vera Chelnik Roseman of McLean, Virginia and Winston-Salem, NC passed away peacefully on February 3, 2016. Born in Harlem, NY July 25, 1921, Vera was the youngest daughter of Charles and Pauline Chelnik. Her siblings Mildred and Martin Chelnik predeceased her, as did her loving husband of 52 years, Alfred M. Roseman.

Vera graduated from Julia Richmond High School in Manhattan and attended Hunter and Vassar Colleges. She worked in the family business Chelnik Parking Co., where she delivered cars to owners' homes, towing a 3-wheeled motorcycle for the return drive to the garage. Young Vera was also called upon to climb atop the gasoline delivery trucks to see that a full load was delivered.

She met her husband Alfred in the Catskills. They married in 1942 while he was a US Naval Reserve officer. She worked as a lab technician during World War II.

Vera was an active member of the League of Women Voters and a mutual fund broker in Glen Rock, NJ before moving to Winston-Salem, NC. There, she taught assertiveness training for women, founded Stratford Realtors and became an accomplished Realtor and real estate investment consultant.

She loved music, particularly contemporary jazz, played piano and sang in the Temple Emanuel choir and other choral groups. She and her Al enjoyed sailing, and she was an avid bridge and duplicate bridge player. Her favorite topics of conversation were her grandchildren and real estate.

She moved to VA in 2011 to be near her two sons, who survive her. Geoffrey L. (Jeanne Johnson) of Silver Spring, MD and Russell P. (Janet Silverman Roseman) of McLean, VA together with their children, Deborah (Andrew Clevenger) of Falls Church, VA and David (Karin) of Philadelphia, PA.

Funeral services and interment February 5, 2016, 11:30am Old Montefiore Cemetery, Queens, NY. Shiva at the home of Russell and Janet Roseman in McLean, VA. Donations can be made to a charity of choice.
