Vernon was a proud successful business owner of C.C. & G. Inc for 50 plus years. He was a loving and caring husband, papaw, friend, and the biggest jokester you knew. For years he was always 29 he never aged. He was friendly to everyone he met. No one was a stranger to him.

Vernon was very close to all his children and grandchildren but over the past few months he was very close with his youngest son Lee. Lee had stepped up and put his life on hold to take care of his dad. Even though they would but heads at times Vernon couldn't have been prouder of him.

There is also another special person in Vernon's life and that is Karen Pohorylo. She was always there when she was needed to help take care of Vernon even before he got sick. She wasn't family but he claimed her. He will be forever grateful.
