“ My sincerest sympathy to the family of Vic Coleman. Vic and Kathryn were dear friends of mine and my late husband, Oscar, dating back to the mid-1950's. We spent much time together in those early years, especially at church activities and on our boats water-skiing. Vic and Kathryn were Godparents to my two girls, Cynthia and Jennifer. After our spouses passed on, Vic and I kept in touch with an occasional lunch at Greenspring. I am sorry that I did not learn of his death until this date. We will always remember Vic and Kathryn in a very special way. They were the "Tie that Binds our Hearts in Christian Love." May God rest their souls..
