

Victoria Morgan Kimber

March 23, 2012 - March 23, 2012

One Spring day in 2011, Victoria Morgan Kimber's life began as Alexis and Chris decided to begin, what would be an arduous process of conception via In Vitro Fertilization (IVF). On 25 July we were blessed to have conceived in what we called "sweet pea," as that is the image we viewed through ultrasound in August. The first few months brought more surprises as she steadily grew without any complications. November arrived and the wonderful news disclosed that Alexis and Chris were having a girl and later that month brought forth the name of their "sweet pea," Victoria Morgan.

The nine months preceding the birth of Victoria were extremely exciting, sharing all the wonderful moments that most parents share: choosing a name, furniture shopping, figuring out which feeding bottle will prevent "gas," picking the safest side-impact, 82-point harness, self-leveling, lower anchor tether car seat system known to man, amongst many other fun things for Baby Victoria. In fact, it took nearly one month to complete her room and it became known as the "best looking room in the house!" The nine months brought beautiful growth not only in Victoria but our relationship—Victoria's mission was to make the relationship the closest it has ever been, her blessings were not only physical, but also emotional and everlasting.

Thursday, 22 March 2012 began just like any other weekday—rise to the 0530 alarm, breakfast on the table for Alexander at 0600 and breakfast for Alexis between 0630-0700 and Alexander off to school at 0630. Once Alexis would have her breakfast and juice, Victoria would slowly wake, and begin her gymnastic practice session. At 0826 the phone call was made to Labor and Delivery, to inform them that Victoria seemed to have missed her gym practice. We arrived at Fort Belvoir Community Hospital, five different nurses/corpsmen/doctor's later, at 0915, Victoria was pronounced to be without a beating heart. Devastated, Alexis and Chris were escorted to their room in the Southwest corner of the fifth floor, where Alexis would have to give birth to Victoria.

Alexis and Chris embraced each other that fateful morning in that Southwest corner room and at 1105, the hospital staff began their mission to assist Alexis in delivering sweet little Victoria. Alexis' mother, Ilva, and their close friend Julie arrived around 1600 for mutual support. Stunned by Alexis' mother's arrival, a sweet embrace only a mother and child can have ensued. After being induced at 1105, Alexis labored for 13 hours and at 0011, Sweet Baby Victoria Morgan was born. She weighed 5 pounds 12 ounces and measured 19.5 inches tall. Absolutely breathtaking.

Sweet embraces by Grandma Ilva, Godmother Julie and brother Alexander continued for as long as time would permit—Alexis and Chris were able to spend 4 hours with Victoria and those moments, that amount of time, was the most precious in their lives. Chris then escorted little Victoria, along with Doctor's and staff to another room where she was safely held until Aaron with Jefferson Funeral Home received Victoria into their care one week to the day, Thursday 29 March 2012.

Sweet Baby Victoria Morgan is a beautiful girl with immeasurable blessings. Following Victoria's passing, Blessings were immediately noticeable as family and friends filled the rooms of the Kimber household showering us with Love, emotions, and tears of happiness and sadness. Her life of 9.6 months was short, yet her memory will be everlasting and the Love for her is immense. We Love You Victoria and We Miss You Sweetheart ~ Mommy and Daddy.

“ We are terribly saddened to hear of your loss. As others have written, no words of ours can possibly describe how much our hearts ache with yours. All the same, we want you to know that we love you all and we're here for you. Your little angel is with the Lord now, and have faith that in time, you will be reunited with her. In the meantime, we'll be your shoulder to cry upon, an attentive ear to hear you, and with open arms- always.

“ Words cannot express my deepest sympathy for your loss. I have been contemplating ways to communicate my condolences for some time. Last week I had the incredible opportunity to spend time in Jerusalem. The tour identified the key sites and significance of each. Once at the Wailing Wall, it was explained that parishioners would write a prayer on a piece of paper and place it within the wall. Further, the guide stated that prayers placed here would be heard and many blessings bestowed. Those in attendance deliberated on who and what they would afford this special pray to, and then would begin the ritual of writing and placing their solicitations in the wall. What I would pray for had no contest or in need of much thought, it would be for the entire Kimber family. Unfortunately, its not much, but know that a prayer is secured in the Wailing Wall and those that visit it, will be praying for you all. Our thoughts and prayers are with you always.

“ To: Victoria Morgan a poem for you. If we could have a lifetime wish A dream that would come true, We'd pray to God with all our hearts For yesterday and You. A thousand words can't bring you back We know because we've tried... Neither will a thousand tears We know because we've cried... You left behind our broken hearts And happy memories too... But we never wanted memories We only wanted You. ~~~~Unknown~~~~ We miss you and know God is watching over you sweet baby girl! Love you “ Alexis, since the day we met, you have always been full of Life, Love and Realness! Then I met Chris, he had the same Love, Life and Realness, proving you guys were meant for each other. Then you moved away, and nothing changed, you always stayed in touch. And then, I received an email that said "The Kimbers are expecting", at that moment, it was like my sister was having a baby, I was so excited! Then that day in March, I received the email with the unfortunate news that said, God decided to keep our little Angel. I was so saddened, as I read with confusion, it hit like a ton of bricks. God let me know that, it was planned that way, he still needed Little Victoria, she was special. Victoria was here for a short time to leave her Love, Life and Realness to the Kimber Family and for that she will never be forgotten. Thank you for allowing me to be a part of your happiness as well as your pain, I Love you guys and I too miss Little Victoria Morgan Kimber!

“ To you my children, Lexi & Chris I'm jealous of all the Angels because you are sitting by their side. I know I'll see you again in heaven, but it hurts not to hold you or see you grow my little angel Victoria Morgan, I'll love with all my heart. One day I'll cross over and will be on your side and sing you lullaby. Love you grandma, Ilva
