“ My rock, my mountain my Angel for all of my Life is now walking in all of her glory in the presence of our one and only Almighty God our Father. May the joyous anthem bells ring in all of their glory. Thank you Jesus for no pain, no suffering & giving my sister eternal peace in you. She was always there for me all of my life. We have shared stories - gotten mad with each other and forgiven each other. Our most favored expression to each other was always "This to shall pass".

With tears and heartache I will miss my best friend, my big sister forever. Thank you for loving me, I love you. Your sister Bonnie

“ Oh Oh my ,So sorry to get this news I am remembering now how my Dad ,better know as Uncle Ben, was so close to all but Bootsie in partictular. They both would work so hard for the title of champion crab and/or corn eaters!! I'm not sure who won but I am missing them both so so greatly. May they both rest very peacefully in eternity.
Love to all Ben & Judy Colgan

“ Annie and Family, Very sorry to hear of you mom's passing. When I heard the news so many great many memories of growing up in Alexandria when it was still Alexandria and of your family came to mind. I need to celebrate a funeral at my parish in Fairfax the same time your mom's funeral is taking place so I will not be able to be present and con-celebrate, but I will be remembering all of you in my prayers. David

“ Her roots may have been in Alexandria but a part of her soul can still be found in Southern Maryland. Bootsie was my mom’s fill - in big sister and as a result I had the pleasure of growing up with her and her wonderful family (children). As a result of a recent tragic event down here I had the pleasure of seeing Bootsie, Teresa and Joe. Talk about a blessing in disguise. I am the better for having known her. God Bless he soul and Rest in Peace
