“ Other than singing with Ginny in the Pride of Baltimore Chorus, my fondest memory is of her and Bruce as Mr. and Mrs. Santa. They both donned their Santa attire each Christmas and gave out candy canes. The only part of Ginny not disguised was her beautiful smiling face. I send warm thoughts and fervent prayers to Bruce and Ginny's family.

“ I will always remember Ginny, and especially the many times she played Mrs. Santa Claus. I regret that I can't attend the viewing on Thursday because that morning I am taking Arianna, our 6-year granddaughter, to visit family members in Jefferson MD. We have several photos of Arianna with Santa and Mrs. Claus that were taken during Alexandria Harmonizer Christmas Shows. We will all miss Ginny and her cheerful attitude and smiling face.
