“ Our families vacationed together many times, often at Nags Head, NC, when a 2 family cottage on the beach was affordable. There were also the many Sunday “family reunions” at Grandma and Granddaddy Thompson’s farm and later their house on Schooley Drive. In all those years, I never saw Uncle Wally in bad mood or heard him say a harsh word about anyone. He was as kind, friendly and easy-going as any man I have ever known. The world is a sadder and less gentle place without him. God rest his soul. David Eike
