“ I'm sorry to hear about your recent passing. I know Mr. Neill was a dear loved one. I didnt know Mr. Neill personally but I just wanted to leave you and your family some encouraging words during this trying time. Even though the future looks grim the Bible brings out a time when death will be no more and soon we will see our dead relatives again. (Revelation 21:4, Acts 24:15) So, when you feel as if times are getting hard just turn to the Bible. I hope this message leaves some sort of encouragement and I'm praying for your family.

“ Walt, you were my best friend for most of the 25 years I've known you. We traveled all over the USA and parts of the world and I'm going to miss you terribly. I'm having a hard time even conveying all the loss I've felt.

“ Walter was one of my German students for a few years at Bayside High School in Virginia Beach. He and some of my other students would spend their lunch period in my classroom discussing politics, movies, science fiction, science fact, and many other topics. He was in the German Club and helped to build the German Club Float for Homecoming one year--a giant beer stein! At Christmas-time he went with us through the Bayside High neighborhoods singing German Christmas carols. I was glad to discover that he was on facebook and we were able to reconnect via the Net.

“ Walt, you were a good friend. They say that you have two families: your family-by-birth and your family-by-choice. You were certainly one of my family-by-choice. I'm going to miss the games, the history geeking, and the political debates. And having you as part of my life.

“ Walter was a long-term colleague for many of us in the State Department's Bureau of Near Eastern Affairs, and he will be deeply missed. All of us who worked with him in recent years in the Middle East Partnership Initiative Office will miss Walt's skills, insight and good humor. He very much understood the context of our work in a complicated region of the world, which enhanced his ability to do his job well.

“ So many good times to remember -- at UVA, in Colorado ...
And upon every trip to DC, I took folks to see Walter as much as to visit any other national monument. My father and wife and others all felt instantly connected to him and impressed by his gentle ways, deep knowledge, and quiet humor.
I'll never be able to produce the exact, perfect movie quote for the moment -- not the way you did, dear friend. Missing you,
Brenton
