“ Life in this world can bring tears and pain. But, may it bring some comfort to the family to know that their tears are not unnoticed by our Heavenly Father. Although your deep pain will not easily disappear. May it comfort you to know that Almighty God is near to those who are broken in heart and those who are crushed in spirit he saves.

“ The news of Bill's passing was hard to hear. But as we sat in the airport we laughed through our tears as we recalled our times at Navy football, Bill's patient and kind attempts to explain that I really shouldn't blame everything bad on the refs, his love of country, his patriotism, his obvious love and caring for Alicia and seeing those blue eyes sparkle along with his smile each time we met. Fair winds and following seas to a true southern gentleman who left us much too soon.

“ When I think of Uncle Bill what comes to mind is a caring, passionate, smart, funny, and loving uncle. I remember the time Uncle Bill and Auntie Lish came to Florida to watch my softball games. Rest in peace. If your playing any softball up there in heaven, get a hit for me. Love you and miss you. Love, Liz

“ Uncle Bill was just that to me. Although we weren't related by blood, I always thought of he and Alicia as family. I have very fond memories of childhood. He was a great man with an incredible heart and will be missed by many. Love always “ Uncle Bill will always be remembered for being a caring and very intellectual person. I could talk Washington Redskins football with him one minute and discuss DC politics the next. The pro football teams we cheered for were different (Dallas Cowboys) but our love for North Carolina Tarheel basketball was passionate. When I think about the great tradition of NC basketball, it mirrors Uncle Bill's life. Tradition, integrity and pride all come to mind. Uncle Bill will be missed and our thoughts and prayers are with Aunt Alicia during this difficult time. As I look back, Uncle Bill had a great life and it needs to be celebrated. God needed an angel and chose our beloved Uncle.

“ Uncle Bill was a great friend, and we treated him as a brother not an uncle. I have treasured memories of his visits home while he was in the Navy. He would always bring us fireworks for christmas every year while all of us kids were growing up. My thoughts and prayers are with you. I know from experience he will be leaving a big void in your life. We know he did not want to be in the condition he was in and God took the choice out of your hands, he made the decision that you couldn't. We love you and will be thinking of you. If we can help let me know. Love you

“ Uncle Billy will be dearly missed. As a kid seeing Uncle Bill and Aunt Alicia at Christmas was so exciting because he always brought us envelopes with money. I am glad that I was able to get close to him over the years after I spent sometime living in NOVA. He is in a much better place that we all long for one day. I pray for Aunt Alicia that things will come together soon for her and help her through this healing time. We love you and will miss you Uncle Bill!
