

William John "Bud" Hagstrom

June 13, 1918 - October 23, 2018

William J. "Bud" Hagstrom passed away on Tuesday, October 23, 2018 at Crofton Care and Rehabilitation Center in Crofton, MD. Bud was born in Oak Park, Illinois and was the eldest of seven children. After graduating high school Bud joined the U.S. Navy and proudly served his country during World War II. After his service in the Navy, Bud began what would become a successful career with several U.S. government defense contractors. His career took him to many cities in the United States. He and his beloved wife Rita moved as his career required. He and Rita made new friends in each new home they made for themselves. He retired with Rita in Bowie, Maryland where he enjoyed golfing with friends and browsing through antique stores and estate sales. He always maintained his sense of humor and quick wit and celebrated his 100th birthday by sharing that humor and wit with others. Bud was preceded in death by his beloved wife Rita (Sparrow) Hagstrom, and all six of his younger brothers Judson, Robert, Douglas, David, Calvin and Dudley. He is survived by 28 nieces and nephews.

Visitation be at Jefferson Funeral Chapel, 5755 Castlewellan Drive, Alexandria, VA on Saturday, October 27, 2018 from 10 AM until time of service at 11 AM. Internment Mt. Comfort Cemetery. “ I was sorry to read about the loss of your dear loved one. The bible gives us hope of seeing them again in the promised resurrection to come according to scriptures found at [John 5:28-29] and [Acts 24:15]. We find further hope in [Isaiah 25:8] and [Revelations 21:3-5] which says in part that Jehovah God will wipe out every tear from our eyes and death will be no more, because God will swallow up death forever. I hope these scriptures will be of some comfort. With Sincere Condolences.
