“ I extend my condolences to the friends and family of Williams at this difficult time. May you be comforted by the promise of the resurrection and the knowledge that soon death will be no more and never again will we have to bury our loved ones. God makes this wonderful promise to us at Isaiah 25:8 where it says that he will "swallow up death forever." Please find hope in these words.

“ Please accept my sincerest sympathy. I know all too well the feeling of losing a mate/loved one because I have been there on several occasions. Although experiencing this pain, I was comforted by the words of Jesus Christ who promises a resurrection of "all those in the memorial tombs" where family and friends can be reunited. (John 5: 28, 29) I hope that this promise can bring you a measure of comfort as well.

“ Please accept my heartfelt sympathies in the loss of your dear loved one. How comforting in knowing Almighty God has not only the power but also the desire to resurrect our loved ones. Jesus himself said: "Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." John 5:28,29

“ Dear friends and family of William,
I am sorry for your loss. The passing of someone you love can be a very difficult thing to cope with. Perhaps you can find some solace in the words Jesus spoke to the sister of Lazarus when he died. John 11:25 states, "I am the resurrection and the life. The one that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." I hope these words bring you some comfort.

“ Death is truly an enemy that robs us of those we love and cherish. Soon that enemy will be brought to nothing as stated at 1 Corinthians 15:26.
Soon we will experience the joy of welcoming our loved ones back to life on a paradise earth never to suffer death again.
May these promises from our Heavenly Father bring you comfort and peace.
My deepest condolences for your loss.

“ Virginia and Family: There are no words sufficient to express our appreciation for knowing and loving Bill Lacey over these last 44 years. Although he has gone West, he will live forever in our hearts and in the hearts of the band of brothers with whom he served so gallantly and brilliantly. But this isn't Goodbye, thanks to our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, this is, as Bill would say: Auf Wiedersehen.
