“ Virginia and family Im so sorry for you and the rest of your extended family. Your family was always so kind to me back in the day when I may not have deserved it. I still remember your and Debbies kindness when my father passed. When in Alexandria I would stop by on business and talk with Bill so I could keep up on your family. Bill would show me pictures of the kids he was a proud uncle. Both Tamaras and my thoughts are with you in this most difficult time.

“ Billy, your sweet gentle smile and your willingness to always help people with anything will be greatly missed. I'll treasure the fun times we had in the mountains, especially sitting around the table talking as a family and sharing the delicious meal that Aunt Bobbie cooked!
