The service was spectacular nothing less for a loving strong an caring father, son, and friend. Angel forever will your laughter, joyful smile an illuminating energy be remembered for a lifetime. I love you my friend always holding on to the memory of you. Proud of the trails you've over come an the tribulations you faced as a man in this world, you are valued as you were I have no doubt we will meet again, until then watching your children age resembling you will be my greatest pleasure. Rest in peace!
